500	Alessandro Viola, Le Mie Origini, Sicilly Catarratto, Biodynamic Deep in colour while the palate is round and rich, the expansive mouthfeel is perfectly balanced by salty acids, an umami bomb with complex flavours of juicy peach, spiced apricot, fresh hay and peated cereal – an aromatic profile reminiscent of the best white Châteauneuf-du-Papes. The finish is long, taut and salivating, this is a food-friendly and moreish wine in the purest Sicilian form.	2022	Italy	95.00
501	Maximin Grunhaus Riesling, Mosel Herrenberg, Grosses Gewachs On the nose, this wine has aromas of fresh lemon and yellow plum, with minerality with excellent freshness. 502	Condrieu Les Chaillets Vieilles Vignes Yves Cuilleron, Rhone Wonderfully opulent and perfumed on the nose with dollops of honey allied to blossom and spicy complexity. 504	Chablis 1er Cru Vaugiraut Premier Cru This comes from one of the best sited of the 1er crus - on quite a steep southerly facing vineyard planted in fragmented Kimmeridgian limestone. The vines are on average 50-year-old. The wine has a gunflint quality on the nose, ripe citrus fruits with a marked salty, chalky flavour on the palate.	2022	France	110.00
507	Chassagne-Montrachet Premier Cru Morgeot Les Petit Clos, Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Bachev-Legros Intensely aromatic with a perfume of white flowers, white peach and apricots, this hugely enjoyable wine has very good concentration and complexity, which will continue to evolve with time. Very attractive minerality.	2024	France	140.00
508	Clos du Rouge, L'Ubac, Cyril Fhal Vin de Pays des Cotes Catalanes Grenache Gris Cyril's top cuvée of white comes from minuscule yields of 65-70yo vines planted in gneiss on a dramatic 70% north-facing hillside. Mechanisation is impossible here, so viticulture is either carried out on foot or with the help of a horse. The finesse and lifted aromatics are astonishing, the fruit is so sleek and stylish, the finish goes on forever with gneiss imparting a subtle stony character – the kind of wine that sends shivers down one's spine and puts most white burgundies firmly in the shade.	2019	France	120.00
509	Domaine du Pelican, Arbois, Jura Marquis D'Angerville, Savagnin Ouille, Biodynamic A pale lemon colour heralds a nose of pure stone-fruit with enticing lemon zest. The palate is joyful: pure and precise lemon and peach fruit to the fore, with zesty lift. A wine of tension and energetic drive.	2023	France	100.00

The blend here is 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon. Intense, ripe red berries soar from the glass: a sensual and exotically spiced nose. The palate is silky-smooth on the attack, the liquid sliding luxuriously over the tongue, with a firm but wholly integrated sense of alcohol supporting the full body, which is lifted by fresh, rather juicy acidity. Sweet raspberry, bitter cherry and a little mulberry contribute to a palate which somehow marries striking immediacy with decadent loveliness. A substantial tannic presence frames the fruit without curtailing it.	2017	France	140.00
